MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller
Deputy Director for Intelligence
Deputy Director for Plans
Deputy Director for Science and Technology
Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Nominations for National Civil Service League
Special Achievement Award

1. The National Civil Service League has recently created the Special Achievement Award in addition to its Career Service Award. As such, it was not included in my memorandum to you this spring inviting nominations of candidates for the Agency's Public Service Awards program.

2. The Special Achievement Award was created to stimulate able young people to choose government careers, encourage all in government to pursue excellence, promote public appreciation of quality in government, and honor career civil servants for significant contributions. The nominee must have made some special achievement or produced work bearing his or her personal mark -- work which has brought credit to the Agency and to the public service. Exceptional contributions -- even in the early years of service -- will be considered.

3. A copy of the brochure concerning the Special Achievement Award is attached for your information and guidance. I would appreciate receiving the names of any nominees by 15 October 1971.

Attached are copies of two announcements for this year's NCSL awards. The blue announcement covers the regular Career Service Award, and the red brochure introduces a different award, called the Special Achievement Award.

Please note that agencies may nominate one candidate for each of the Awards. The League will select ten awardees from amongst all the nominees.

Also note that the announcement has a tear-off portion that must be attached to the nomination to identify it as either being a nomination for the NCSL Career Service Award, or the NCSL Special Achievement Award. Any questions you may have concerning the League awards should be directed to Miss Ada Kimsey of the League, telephone number 833-1450.
